Windy Girl

She was the windproof lighter's original spokes model. From her earliest appearance in Zippo's first national advertisement, Windy has personified the windproof characteristic of a Zippo lighter. Although 2007 marked her 70th birthday, Windy remains forever young and carefree. However turbulent the elements, and however the fads and fashions might change with the passing years, the Zippo flame remains steadfast.

Celebrate Windy through the decades with a new series of Zippo lighters - satin chrome, surface imprinted - and yes, windproof. A nostalgic fifth lighter replicates early advertising for the famous Zippo fan test.
